

MAQLUBA

Time: 120 minutes | Portion: for 6 people

Ingredients

3 cups PusaCream rice, washed, soaked for 30 minutes and drained

Stock

- 4 tbsp olive oil
- 1 small onion, peeled and diced
- 600g chicken, cut into 5 to 6 pieces
- 500ml water
- 1 packet sup bunjut
- spices (available from the supermarket)
- 1 tbsp allspice
- 1 tsp pepper
- ½ tbsp salt
- 1 brinjal, cut into 12cm strip, sliced and fried
- 2 tomatoes, sliced
- 2 potatoes, sliced 0.5cm thick and fried
- 1 small onion, peeled and sliced into rings
- 3 tbsp chopped coriander leaves
- 50g almond slices, fried
- 50g cashew nuts, fried
- 50g raisins, fried

Method

- 1 Heat olive oil in a pot and sauté diced onion until slightly golden. Add chicken and fry until it shrinks a little. Add enough water to cover 3cm to 4cm above the chicken, and add remaining ingredients for the stock. Boil until cooked. Set aside the stock.
- 2 Put a deep pot filled with a 1/4 cup of PusaCream rice on the stove.
- 3 Arrange brinjal, tomatoes, potatoes, and onion rings on top of rice. Top with chicken pieces.
- 4 Spread the remaining PusaCream rice on top. Pour in the chicken stock (about 3 cups), making sure it cover 3cm to 4cm above the rice.
- 5 Cover pot and bring to a boil over high heat for 10 minutes, then reduce to lowest heat setting. Place a pan or steel plate underneath the pot to prevent the rice from burning. Boil slowly for another 30 to 35 minutes or until rice is cooked. Allow rice to rest for 20 minutes before serving.
- 6 To serve, remove lid from pot and replace it with a serving plate. Flip pot over, leaving rice upside down on the plate.
- 7 Garnish with chopped coriander leaves, fried almond slices, cashew nuts, and raisins. Serve with salsa or jelatah.
